VALLEY NATIVES OPEN EMERINE ESTATES WINERY IN JEFFERSON

Emerine Estates Winery's store opened its doors on Friday, August 25, 2006, at 5689 Loveland Road in the heart of Cherry Valley in Jefferson, Ohio. Valley natives Jason Emerine of Cortland and Melissa Bohr of Austintown own the winery.

Wine making has been a passion of Emerine's for many years. Bohr became involved in wine making a few years ago and has enjoyed being a part of the business. "We work well as a team and are both excited about our new adventure—the possibilities are endless," Emerine states.

Emerine Estates offers all natural fruit wines, including nine flavors that range from Tropical Paradise—which is a pineapple base—to a Cranberry Wine that goes well with any holiday dinner. There will be a new flavor coming out in a few months.

The winery participated in Vintage Ohio, which was held in Kirtland, Ohio, at the beginning of August and found it to be a huge success. They will be participating in the Cleveland Wine Festival September 29 and 30 at Voinovich Park, across from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Store hours of operation will be Monday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., and closed on Sundays and holidays. Visit www.emerineestates.com for additional information.
